Washtenaw Creates: A Response to Coronavirus

Local author and teacher Patti Smith is organizing an online event to take place this summer that will act as a fundraiser to benefit local bookstores. Patti is inviting all creative types in Washtenaw county to participate in the event by sharing poems, stories, songs, and visual art that relate to this time and can hopefully be turned into a zine or ebook. If you are interested in participating, please email Patti at teacherpatti@fastmail.net.

The Ann Arbor District Library has started a Pandemic Log and are looking for stories to document this moment in history. Learn about what they are looking for and how you can submit your stories here.
